

Prof. Dan Gaita, MD, PhD
(Timisoara, Romania)

Dan Gaita is Chief of Cardiology in Institute of Cardiovascular Diseases and Professor of Cardiology in Cardiology Department of University of Medicine and Pharmacy Timisoara, Romania.

He is Board Member of European Heart Network, Vice President of Romanian Society of Cardiology and President of CardioPrevent Foundation.

His long term commitment in the field of Cardiovascular medicine is reflected in international positions and pioneering activities:

- 2006 – 2010 – Member of ESC Education and Accreditation Committee (Chairman of Education and Accreditation Committee - European Association for Cardiovascular Prevention and Rehabilitation)
- since 2009 – initiator and co-director of Dubrovnik Cardiology Update (endorsed by ESC Education Committee) – 2009/2011/2013/2013/2017/2019 edition)
- 2012 – 2015 – Board Member of World Heart Federation
- 2020 – 2022 – Board Member of European Society of Cardiology.

„CardioDiabetology” is one of the main direction of his activity – highlighting that since 2007 he initiated in Romania „CardioDiab Expert Meeting” (this year celebrating the 17th annual meeting) and organizing since 2013 regional courses endorsed by the ESC : EU-CDA (European CardioDiabetology Alliance) in Bucharest, Chisinau, Almaty and Sofia.