
The duties / activities related to the vacant teaching positions, in accordance with art. 211 of the Higher Education Law no. 199/2023

1. The university norm includes:

- a) Didactic norm;
- b) Research norm.

2. The didactic/teaching norm may include:

- a) teaching activities: courses;*
- b) applied activities: seminar, project, practical and laboratory works, practice, guidance of year projects;*
- c) guiding the elaboration of bachelor theses, as well as diploma projects;*
- d) guiding the elaboration of master's dissertations;*
- e) guiding the development of doctoral theses;*
- f) other didactic, practical and scientific research activities included in the education plans;*
- g) management of didactic-artistic or sports activities;*
- h) assessment activities;*
- i) tutoring, consultations, guidance of student scientific circles, as well as guidance and counseling of students during mobility;*
- j) participation in councils and commissions in the interest of education;*
- k) activities for the development of didactic materials;*
- l) creating digital content for the disciplines in the field of specialization;*
- m) participation in specific commissions for the development of activities within the department, doctoral school, faculty, IOSUD or university;*
- n) guidance/coordination of students enrolled in a study program as a year tutor;*
- o) other specific professional activities in the scientific field of competence.*